

ANTITRUST STATEMENT

(To be acknowledged at each meeting)

The Arizona rock Products Association is committed to full compliance with the Sherman Act and other antitrust statutes. In order to prevent the possibility of violation, discussion of the following topics is not permitted at any meeting of the Association:

- Price or price levels, including discussion of prices of products, supplies or services;
- Company costs of operations, supplies or services;
- Allowances or discounts;
- Terms of sales;
- Margins;
- Plans of individual companies concerning production, distribution or marketing of particular products;
- Changes in industry production, capacity or inventories, except historical data;
- Agreements not to compete including division of territories or customers; and
- Refusals to deal including blacklists.

The agenda for each meeting shall be strictly followed. Each member should be familiar with the Association's Antitrust Statement. A copy of this statement is available for your review. Any questions about whether a discussion is proper under the antitrust laws should be referred to counsel for a determination.
